GREAT SCOT!

Traditional Home and Textiles Scotland will host a lively discussion with leading designers Tobi Fairley, Anne Maxwell Foster, Philip Gorrivan, Patrik Lönn and Gideon Mendelson this February in New York City's D&D Building. Guests will hear about their excursion to Scotland, and see how each translated the country's iconic textiles into a stylish statement chair using Edward Ferrell + Lewis Mittman furniture designs.

BILOTTA AND BERNARDAUD "ART OF THE TABLE"

This past fall, Bilotta Kitchens and Bernardaud showcased four sumptuous vignettes by designers Carol Brewer, Allison Hennessy, Jennifer Post, and Nancy J. Ruddy/Cetra Ruddy at the second annual "Art of the Table" design event in Bilotta's A&D Building showroom in New York City. Guests sipped champagne and mingled with the talents while viewing the kitchen displays decorated with Bernardaud porcelain, celebrating the fusion of design, art and lifestyle. See all four vignettes and learn more about Bilotta at www.bilotta.com and Bernardaud at www.bernardaud.com.

JANUS ET CIE OPENS ATLANTA SHOWROOM

Traditional Home and JANUS et Cie celebrated the brand's Atlanta showroom opening on November 14 with a festive cocktail reception presenting a modern twist on Southern traditions. More than 300 guests visited the gorgeous 7,000-square-foot space that has been architecturally re-imagined with signature JANUS et Cie elements—limestone floors, crisp white walls and finishes, and chic faux topiary hedges. The space also boasts a deck and garden to showcase the company's extensive dining and lounge collections.
